

training provided. All classes must be attended to become a tutor. Call Mallory at (910) 483-5944.

FIRST HOME HEALTH AND HOSPICE

Spiritual volunteers (chaplains) are needed to spend time with hospice patients. Training provided. Hospice speakers are available for church and civic groups. Call Mary Ann Harris at (910) 860-7178.

FREEDOM MEMORIAL PARK

Volunteers are needed to expand the steering committee for Freedom Memorial Park. The group meets monthly to discuss design changes, events and fund-raising opportunities for development of the veterans' memorial park. Call Don Talbot at (910) 867-7776.

FRIENDS OF THE CANCER CENTER

Volunteers are needed to assist cancer patients through Friends of the Cancer

Center of Cape Fear Valley Health Foundation. The Friends mission to support, guide and nurture patients and their families during their treatment. Volunteers are needed Monday through Friday from 8:30 a.m. to 4:30 p.m. at the Cancer Center at Health Pavilion North, on Ramsey Street. Volunteers assist in the lounge and resource center. They serve refreshments and provide support for patients and their families. To volunteer, you must be at least 18, complete the application and interview process and attend an orientation session. Call (910) 609-7618.

GUARDIAN AD LITEM OF CUMBERLAND COUNTY

Do you enjoy working with children and want to make a difference in a child's life? Then become a volunteer for Guardian Ad Litem, a volunteer-based program that advocates for children who have been taken out of their homes by the Department of Social Services because of abuse or neglect. For more information, call (910) 678-2921.

MOORE COUNTY HISTORICAL ASSOCIATION

Founded in 1946, the MCHA has been recognized as a pioneer in preserving the history of everyday life of the 1700s and 1800s in North Carolina. Among the homes the association maintains are the historic properties of the Shaw House, Garner House and Sanders Cabin, all in Southern Pines, and the Bryant House and McLendon Cabin in Carthage. All homes are open for tours. To volunteer, call (910) 692-2051.

MOORE COUNTY LITERACY COUNCIL

Volunteer tutors are needed to teach reading. Training sessions are held every month. Call Pam Giambelluca in Southern Pines, (910) 692-5954.

MUSEUM OF THE CAPE FEAR HISTORICAL COMPLEX

The museum seeks history-loving volunteers to serve as reception desk attendants and tour guides. Flexible hours. Training is provided. Call Leisa Greathouse at (910) 486-1330, ext. 212, or the education staff at ext. 214.

PARTNERSHIP FOR CHILDREN OF CUMBERLAND COUNTY

The Partnership for Children of Cumberland County is looking for volunteers to assist with planning and working at events for families with young children, to work in our Resource Lending Library, and to greet guests at the Omni Family Resource Center. Call Bri Kay at (910) 867-9700, ext. 2509.

RETIRED SENIOR VOLUNTEER PROGRAM (RSVP)

For adults 55-plus, this organization services 75 volunteer locations throughout Fayetteville and Cumberland County, in addition to local schools. Benefits are available. There is no cost to join, and once you become a member, you are invited to all RSVP activities/events. Call Judy Dawkins at (910) 433-1136.

SANDHILLS/MOORE COALITION FOR HUMAN CARE

The coalition is a small, nonprofit organization that helps low-income families in Moore County. For more information, call executive director Caroline Eddy at (910) 693-1600.

SOUTHEASTERN N.C. RADIO READING SERVICE

Volunteers read The Fayetteville Observer and other regional newspapers over the radio and to the blind. Call Trish Stone at (910) 486-7007.

VETERANS AFFAIRS MEDICAL CENTER

Volunteers fulfill many roles, such as greeting, filing and checking-in, transporting and feeding patients. Call Norma Byrd at (910) 822-7929.

WOMACK ARMY MEDICAL CENTER

Cheerful volunteers answer phones, perform clerical work, provide transportation services and deliver Red Cross messages to military families. Call Mary H. Devitt at (910) 907-7124, or call the main Red Cross office on Fort Bragg at (910) 396-1231.

E-mail your organization's volunteer needs and contact information to: gibsonj@fayobserver.com. Information is published free on a space-availability basis.